Prologue

Life is a path from birth to death.

At least once in our lives each of us stops to listen to a fantastic tale. When we have arrived at our final destination, we ourselves will have told quite a tale. We shall have traveled the roads of joy, sorrow, mystery, often delayed by daily problems.

In much this same manner Alice, of Lewis Carroll's Alice in Wonderland, follows a path. Her hardships are many, her problems are varied . . . yet she travels on.

We, too, the class of 1965, are starting our paths. Milton High School has given us the introduction, the push, the drive, the advice, and the desire to continue. Our trip is as varied, as complex, and in many ways as fantastic as that of Alice. We must travel on . . . forever indebted to Milton High.

The Principal's Message

Mr. E. Francis Kane

My sincere congratulations to the graduating class of 1965, the largest class in the history of Milton High School.

You have been closely guided for the last three years by a most understanding faculty to prepare you to take your rightful place in society. And I am not unmindful of the many honors you have received, especially in the academic field.

You are about to enter an exciting adult life with its limitless possibilities and challenges. We are told that some five million youths will enter this society within the next three years and with an ever-increasing degree of automation some would discourage your generation with its high hopes and aspirations.

You have been encouraged to seek the right answers, the right attitudes, the right way of thinking. As you enter college life or the business world, we hope you will make use of these attributes. The complex adult life of today demands it of you.

This is not the end of our relationship. We are confident of your success, and we shall always be eager to assist you in any way possible.

ACTIVITIES

The National Honor Society

Chosen for their scholarship, leadership, service, and character, the members of the National Honor Society certainly deserve to have their picture placed first in the Yearbook. To become a member of the National Honor Society, one must be extensively screened by his teachers. He must also maintain a high scholastic record and participate in extracurricular activities both in school and in the community. As a result of this close scrutiny only about one out of every twenty students becomes a member. However, this number has been increasing from year to year. This year the National Honor Society has been fortunate in having Gail Suzedell as its president. The privilege of becoming a member of the National Honor Society is one to which all should aspire.

Senior Honor Roll

The members of the Senior Honor Roll are those students who have maintained honor grades throughout high school. This is not an easy task, and they deserve much credit. They care enough to do more than just the essentials expected by their teachers. Extra reading assignments and independent projects earn them their high marks. They are not just good students, they are also good citizens. These students are the ones who find the time to do their part to aid the community by doing such things as volunteer work, serving on committees, and participating in community projects. Not one of these students ignores his duty to Milton. The members of the Senior Honor Roll are the top members of the class of 1965.

FRONT ROW: Karen Stockman, Judith Falcone, Alice Connolly, Cynthia Newcomb, Neal Gordon, Donna Botbol, Valerie Nelson, Wendy Stafford. Yearbook Literary Staff

The work, the fun, the teachers, the friends, the ambitions — this is our school. Can the pictures, the write-ups, the pages of one book express the feeling we have all had for M.H.S.? To prove that it can has been the hard job of a few zealous members of our class.

The devoted literary staff of 1965 has spent many hours working diligently toward their ultimate goal—a Yearbook which in later times will help us recapture the spirit of our years at Milton High School.

The Echo

This year for the first time the "Echo" staff has made it possible for the students of M.H.S. to enjoy not only a semi-annual magazine but also a periodical bulletin. The key words for this year's skillful staff seem to be progress and excellence.

Making Headlines While Beating Deadlines

Yearbook Business Staff

It is the responsibility of the Yearbook Business Staff to make certain that the Milton High Yearbook is financed properly. A homeroom representative is necessary to insure efficient transactions between the students and staff. Additional funds are obtained through subscriptions and advertisements. With the competent help of Miss Wiley, the staff has maintained an excellent reputation for success.

The Collectors

A grim name for a grand group —
“The Collectors.”

At times 'twas a grim job, plaguing and hounding their friends for that last dollar to beat that last deadline.

Did they succeed? — Well, you wouldn't be reading this if you hadn't paid for it!

FRONT ROW: G. Bavley, M. Kaufman, D. Botbol, K. Hurwitz, B. Alpert, A. Solomon, G. Suzedell, S. Adams, N. Swartz. Second Row: N. Thorburn, L. Shimmin, S. Bloom, T. Lemler, S. Abramson, B. Petersen, D. Carlson, K. Minsinger, L. Bossi, J. Myers, E. Milman, L. Raymond, L. Stein, L. Kagan. Third Row: A. Braverman, M. Koppel, D. Larkin, J. Robbins, L. Fasch, M. McLean, H. Weinrebe, R. Linden, R. Connell, B. Litner.

Dramatic Club

The brilliance of Broadway is here at Milton High. This year our Dramatic Club had a dream come true — an enormous stage, an intricate lighting system — everything we need that the show might go on.

The premiere production was the senior class play, "Tom Jones," the story of a "paragon of virtue — misunderstood as the good so often are—." See pages 102 and 103 for behind-the-scenes and on-stage pictures.

Aided by the spirit of an enthusiastic director, Miss Cave, the Dramatic Club planned a very full year. Included in the year's activities were special programs, workshop sessions, and participation in regional and state drama festival activities.

National Thespian Society

"THE PLAY'S THE THING!"

William Shakespeare

Spotlights and greasepaint, hammers and stitches, scene plots and sound cues, rehearsals and more rehearsals — a play and a company grow together. Beyond the applause on opening night is another goal, the coveted certificate and pin of the National Thespian Society. This year the combination of our new stage, more difficult plays, and stiffened membership requirements has increased the challenge. By February, eleven seniors and two juniors had qualified; after the May initiation a record number will be wearing the insignia of the double mask.

Senior Student Council

The Student Council has increased its already large contributions to Milton High School and to the community. The council has promoted the "Save the Children's Federation" by collecting usable clothing from the students. At the time of the national election the council also helped with a "Get out the vote campaign." For the school, the council has helped in the scholarship drive by selling candy at basketball games and by sponsoring rummage sales and cake sales. It also sold notebooks, sweat shirts, and book covers to raise money for its general functions.

Besides being active within the school and the community, the Student Council has sent delegates to the Eastern Massachusetts Student Council Convention and to the Massachusetts State Student Council Convention.

Homeroom Delegation

The Homeroom Delegation, consisting of one delegate and alternate from each homeroom, is a very important organization in our school. It aids the Student Council in linking together the student body and the faculty. The delegation assists in keeping the students aware of the activities and opportunities that are opened to them.

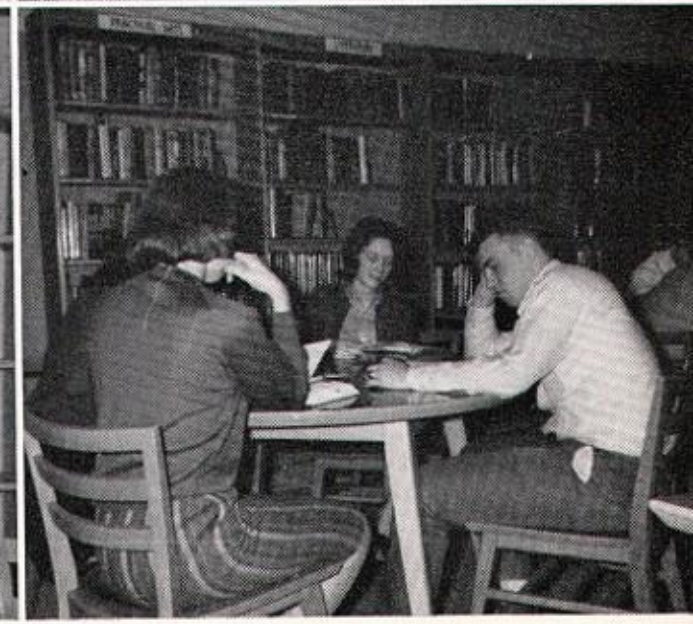

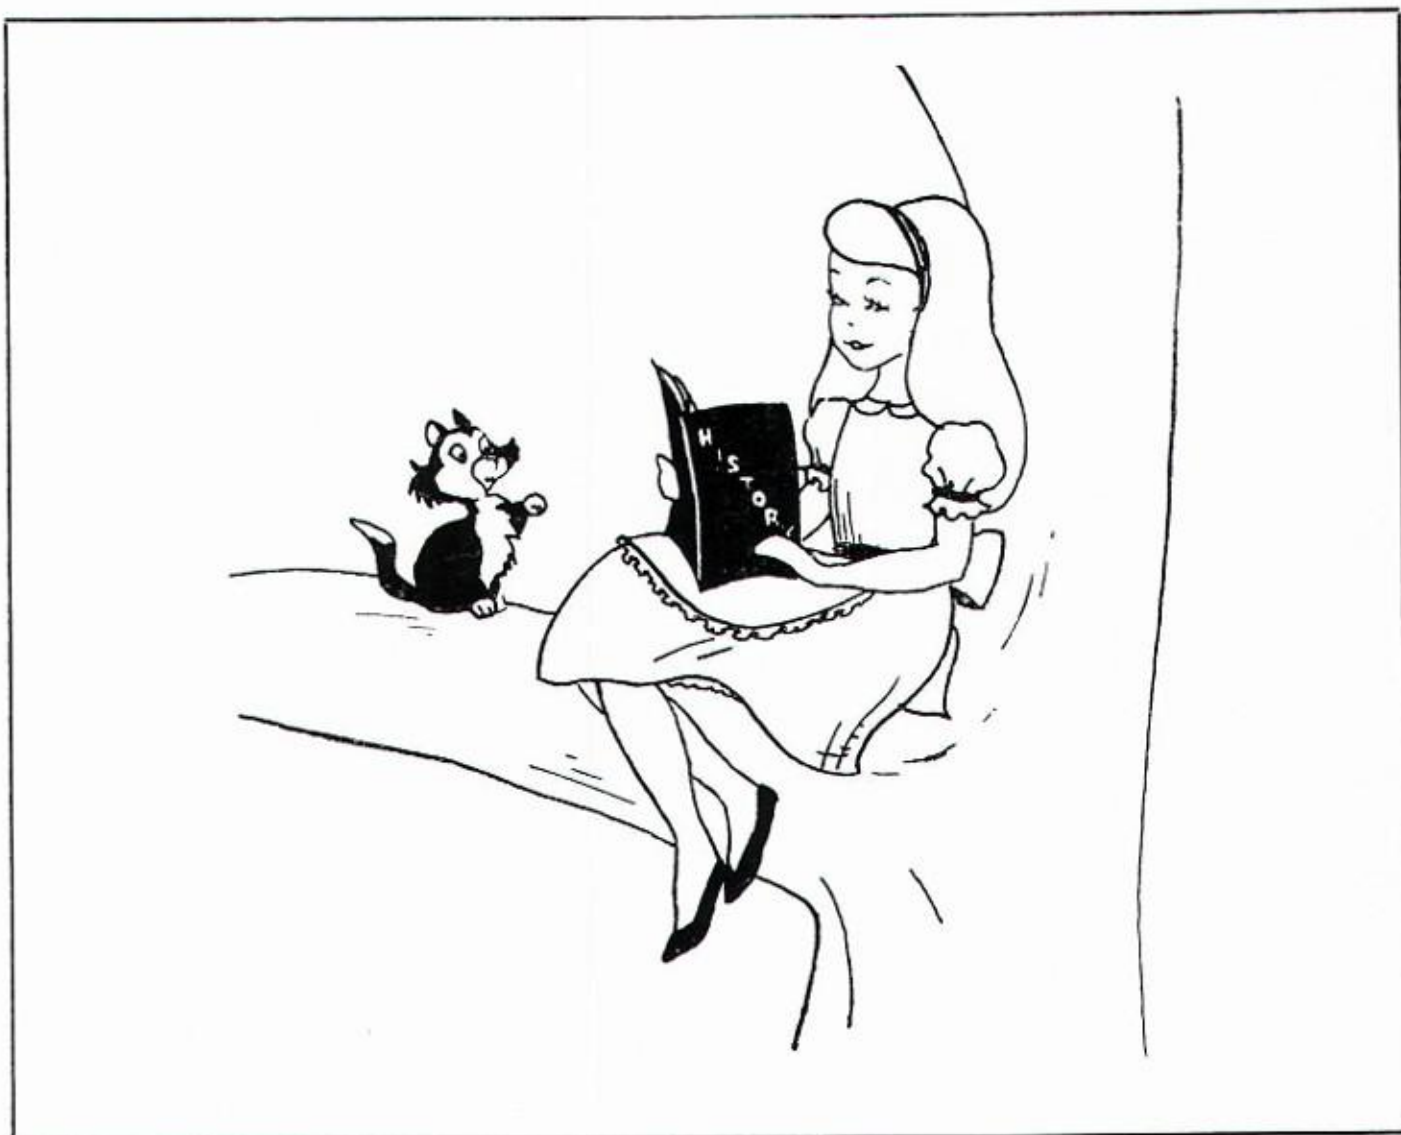

The delegation met regularly under the capable leadership of its president, John Quatromoni.

Library Assistants

They come early, and leave late, and give up their study periods to shelve and dust, to straighten and check out the books in our library. They're indispensable not only to Mrs. Pile, but also to each Milton High School student, for they put themselves at our disposal to help us find whatever books or magazines that we may need. The Library Assistants are true examples of good citizenship at M.H.S.

FRONT ROW: Alice Connolly, Carol Norton, Nancy Swartz, Paula Tate, Judith Dugan, Miriam Kaufman. Second Row: Martha MacWilliam, Cynthia Ross, Frances Heaney, Patricia Brennan, Sandra Bloom.

Girls League

This year the Girls League took on a bright new air under the capable leadership of Nancy Swartz, its president, and Miss Desmond, its new adviser. For the gala semi-formal, which initiated the year's activities, the school gymnasium was transformed into a wonderland of blue and green. The Girls League not only sponsored traditional activities such as the Mothers' Tea and Fashion Show, and the Spring Dance, but also introduced the Spring Picnic on which every girl had a time she will never forget. Any girl whose interests ranged from art to athletics could find her place in the Girls League.

French Club

This year's French Club, aided by the enthusiasm of president, Bette Sunshine; vice-president, Steve Karoul; secretary, Karen Stockman; and treasurer, Elyse Lackey, is succeeding in its purpose to stimulate interest in French outside of the classroom. "Paper bag dramatics," Susan Adams' slides of Switzerland, Mr. Foss's talk on Cambodia, French films, their own newspaper, and four trips to a French restaurant have made it a variety-packed and enjoyable year.

French Honor Society

The French Honor Society, selected for continuing excellence in French and all other subjects, has brought much credit to Milton High School's Foreign Language Department.

FRONT ROW: Susan Adams, Bonnie Geller, Gail Suzedell, Elaine Kaiserman. Second Row: Cynthia Newcomb, Marcia Bromfield, Bette Sunshine.

Art Club

The imaginative and colorfully creative posters which have been adorning the walls of Milton High School are just a sample of the Art Club's artistic ability.

Promoting interest in school activities and events, the club has proven to be one of the most beneficial organizations in the school's history.

Field trips to art exhibits, museums, and other places of interest, are just another branch on the tree of activity of this productive and energetic group.

Band

The Band, under the direction of Mr. O'Donnell, has given us much musical pleasure with their performances this year. The members, who rehearsed every seventh period, were an integral part of each football game and pep rally, as well as enthusiastic performers at the Christmas assembly and the annual spring concert.

Glee Club

This year the Glee Club was composed of selected voices, under the superb direction of Mr. Tatro. This group met twice a week for rehearsals and enjoyed the use of the modern facilities on our new music department.

The members presented gay entertainment at the Christmas assembly as well as at the annual spring concert and a special concert at Natick High School.

Language Laboratory Assistants

An important part of the foreign language laboratory program at Milton High School is that of the Language Lab technicians who keep our lab in perfect condition. With their valuable assistance in repairing booths, microphones, and headsets more time can be utilized in acquiring knowledge of French and German.

Chemistry Club

For most people football games start at 1:00 P.M., but for the industrious, enthusiastic concession-workers game time is 9:00 A.M. It is at this time that students, directed by Mr. Creighton, begin preparation of the appetizing snacks that are on sale during the game. "Popcorn, hot dogs, coffee!" is a frequent cry of these workers, while program vendors, under the direction of Mr. Carnie, approach customers as they pass through the gates. Football games are exciting, but the concession workers add fun.

FRONT ROW: J. Smith, E. Campbell, L. Lief, E. Scribner, J. Bruneau, D. Van Putten, J. Ferren, P. Burnham, Serond Row: E. Parker, J. Falcone, G. Bavley, L. Bossi, A. MacWilliam, E. Correnti, F. Heaney, C. Ward, P. Desmond, L. Tutunian, J. Poleski. Third Row: K. Lynch, A. Sholds, G. Demitri, D. McGagh, R. Silverio, M. Harrington, S. Reardon, M. Brickley, H. Ross, P. Anton, K. Hale, J. Dugan, D. Canty, S. Lever, P. Tate, M. Morgan, Mrs. Roland. Fourth Row: N. Swartz, J. Shaughnessy, P. West, S. Feingold, E. Lievi, J. Quinn, C. Capodieci, L. Jones, M. Thomas, M. Lally, P. Mulhern, J. Klehm, C. Galvin, V. Nelson, A. Connolly, E. Jacobsen.

Future Homemakers of America

The Future Homemakers of America is one of the few clubs at Milton High to have a state and national affiliation. Also, the Milton High Chapter is the largest in the state consisting of 147 members with Mrs. Roland as chapter adviser. The FHA offers many advantages to its members, a few being — opportunities to be of service to others; assistance to members in choosing their life goals and values; providing new friends, new views, and new experiences.

Fifty girls from Milton attended the annual FHA State Convention held at the University of Massachusetts. The last national convention was held in Chicago, with Lorraine Bossi and Frances Heaney representing our chapter. The next convention in Philadelphia will be attended by Mrs. Roland and two representatives to be elected.

This year's activities have already included a record hop which was very successful, a candy sale, and a Silver Tea initiation ceremony.

Ski Club

The Ski Club has become one of the most popular clubs at Milton High. Such enthusiasm for membership has made more and better trips possible. Under Mr. Raymond's guidance, the club was run by President Chris Hoxie, Vice President Judith Gates, and Secretary-Treasurer Daniel Larkin. Although attempts for trips early this school year had been futile because of weather, snow finally fell (so did the skiers) and a good time was had by all.

Latin Club

The Latin Club with seventy members is one of the largest clubs at Milton High School. Under the guidance of Miss Shultz and Mrs. Donaldson, the Latin Club has kept alive an interest in the classical languages. During the course of the year the club has seen slides of various parts of Europe, particularly Italy, put on a play about the Roman feast day of Saturnalia, and had its annual Slave Auction.

In addition, the club participates in the nation-wide Junior Classical League which holds state-wide and nation-wide conventions each year to which the Milton Chapter has sent several members in previous years.

The officers of the club include Peter

Murdza and Alan Braverman, consuls; Nancy O'Connell, aedile; Bonnie Geller, treasurer; Susan Weinstein, recording secretary; Felice Reagan, corresponding secretary; Gail Suzedell, photographer; and Myra Lyman, historian.

Mathematics Club

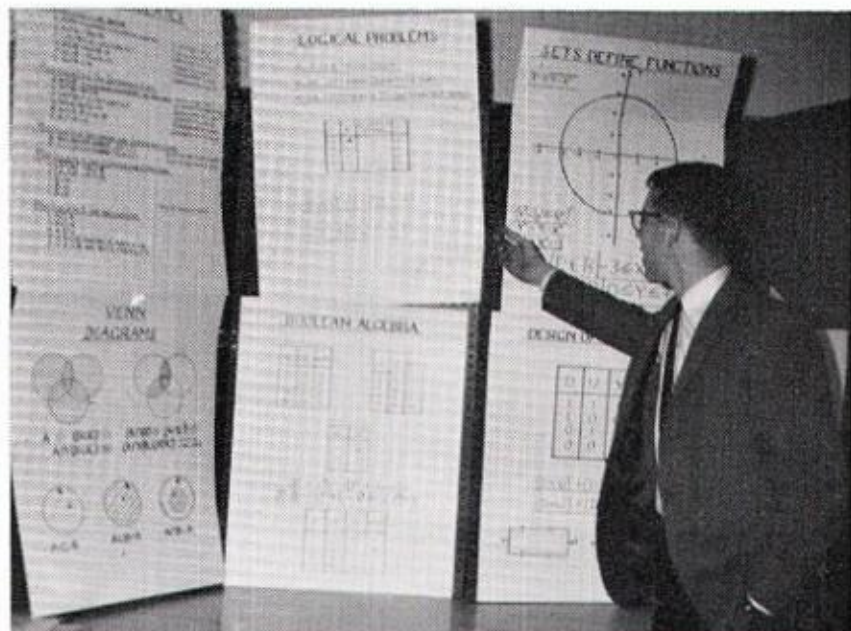

The Mathematics Club provides interested students an opportunity to discuss their projects before the entire group. Aerodynamics, set theory, analysis of medical data are some of the topics which have been outstanding this year.

Mathematical essays prepared for classes are another source of interesting material. Also, mathematical films are shown and guest lecturers have been invited to discuss mathematical topics at the meetings.

In the spring, the club takes at least one field trip to a mathematical or scientific installation at a university or government center.

For a service project, several members of the club teach the use of slide-rule to large groups of students over a period of two to three weeks.

Faculty, Office and Guidance Assistants

These girls have given up many of their study periods to help the faculty and office secretaries. They perform such tasks as typing, delivering notices, and answering the telephone and switchboard.

FACULTY SECRETARIES

GUIDANCE ASSISTANTS

OFFICE ASSISTANTS

Bloodmobile Assistants

Yes, some people can stand the sight of blood. The Bloodmobile Assistants, for example, are trained to assist in the various duties that are necessary to the smooth functioning of the Bloodmobile in its visits to Milton. These girls, through their hard work and generosity both after school and during vacations, are the builders of a better community.

Miss Benson's Assistants

Room 020, the first classroom in the new building, is separate from the hub-bub of the rest of the school. Hundreds of students rush by every week, but only nine girls go inside. They are met by cries of "Look, who is here" and shouted "Hello's." This is Miss Benson's Special Class. The girls are there both to teach and learn. They do everything from teaching reading and art to playing games. For this they give up one to five study periods weekly. But it is not all an act of giving. Girls going into this type of teaching receive invaluable experience. There is also a sense of pride, accomplishment, and love which enable the girls leaving the room to hold their heads a little higher.

SPORTS

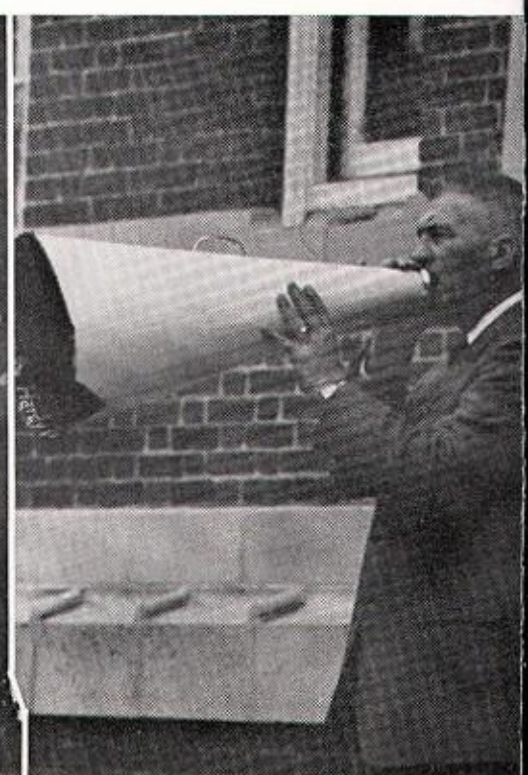

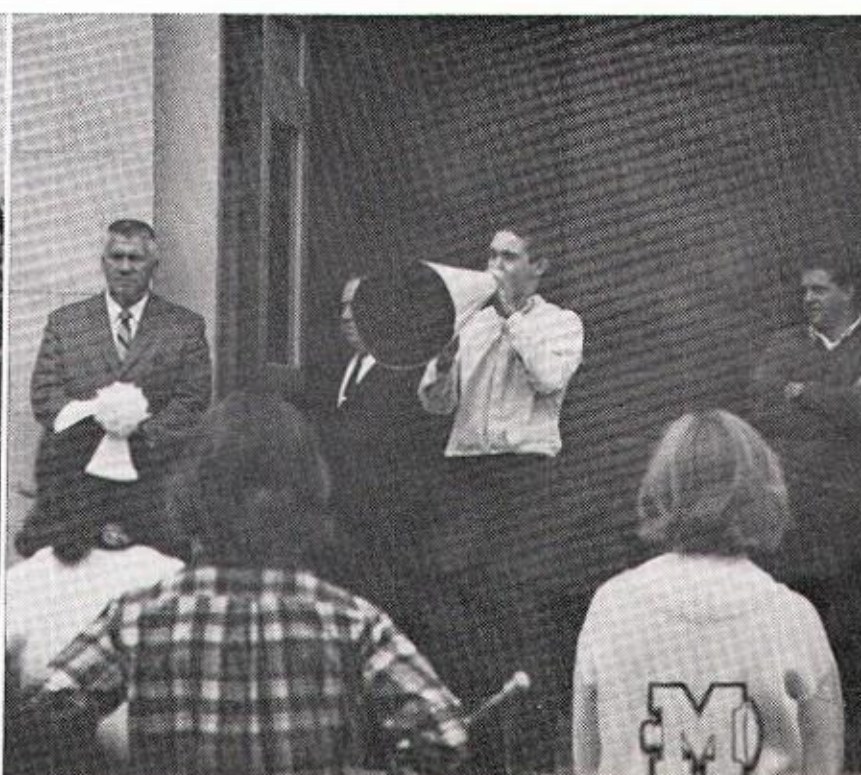

FOOTBALL SENIORS

When we look back on our football teams that have acquired the name "fighting men," we can easily class our 1964 football team among them. Although we lost several games, our boys, spirited and determined, made a creditable showing. One of the highlights of the season was the Needham game. We lost, but we who were there knew that the Red and the White had outplayed Needham by far. However, the game of the season was against Braintree on Thanksgiving Day. The boys fought hard and defeated our arch rival 28 to 22. After playing an excellent game, our quarterback Harry Meredith and our co-captain Paul Karrissey were the recipients of the Owen B. Kiernan award. We have every right to be justly proud of these boys who wore our colors proudly and defended them with honor.

Scenes
from a
Scintillating Season

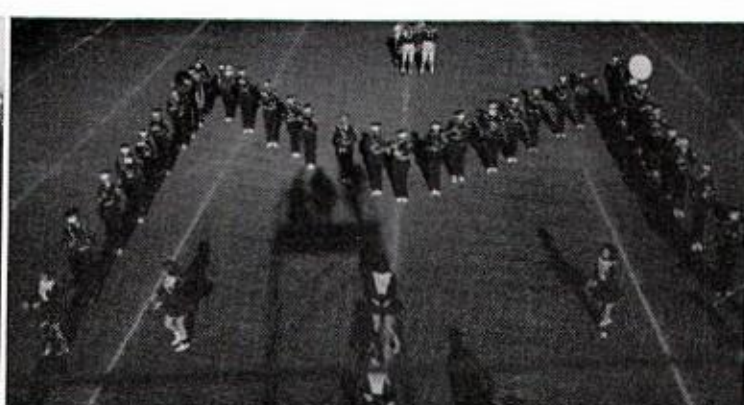

Harry Meredith, Mr. Brennan, Paul Kerrissey.

The Owen B. Kiernan Awards

In addition to the usual bone-crushing line play and deft running by a flock of fleet backs, this year's Braintree-Milton game featured an almost continuous game of catch between Harry Meredith and Paul Kerrissey. So accurate were Harry's tosses and so fantastic Paul's grabs that the judges were forced to — and delighted to — award this year's Owen B. Kiernan Award for excellence in the Thanksgiving Day game to these two fine members of our graduating class.

Cheerleaders and Majorettes

Autumn saw bubbling activity at the football games with our cheerleaders and majorettes. Led by their captains, Carol Cercone and Lynne Raymond, these two groups of girls worked hard preparing cheers and routines throughout the season. The weather may have been cold, hot, or wet, but these perky girls were always there, giving a wholehearted effort to encourage the crowds to demonstrate the school's support for its team.

Basketball

With only one returning letterman, this year's basketball team could not expect too much. They made up for their inexperience by their enthusiasm and willingness to work. Every afternoon they could be seen "hooping it" in the gym even after other teams had quit. Although they did not win all their games, they played well and often lost by only a few points. If games could be won by sheer effort, our team would have been on top. This year's jayvee team had a successful season, and many juniors played on the varsity, so maybe with this experience and skill, the 1965-66 team will be a winning one.

Indoor and Outdoor Track

Coaches Adams and McCabe turn out stellar teams. Perhaps you've been casually leaving the building by the basement floor, and were nearly trampled by a herd of . . . boys. Or maybe you were almost struck with a javelin by a tribe of . . . boys. Well, these herds and tribes are our diligent track men, practicing their way to stardom.

Wrestling

Milton High School is very proud of its state championship wrestling team. Under the able leadership of Mr. Tardiff and his assistant Mr. McCabe, this hard-working team is recording victory upon victory, and is now shooting for its first Bay State League Championship. Captain Bob Gioiosa and all his teammates are to be given a hand for their fortitude in the grueling sport.

Gymnastics

Gymnastics is one of the newer sports at Milton High School and is rapidly gaining popularity. Our gymnastic team is only in its second season but has received a great many compliments for such a young team. This is due mostly to the hard work and rigorous effort of our talented coach Mr. David Webster. Captain Steve Karoul and his fellow teammates have made an excellent showing this year in the Bay State League and also have greatly aided in the success of our annual gymnastic show.

Hockey

Though few in number, the hockey team under the leadership of co-captains Byron and Marshall and Coach Gregory have proved to have been a mighty adversary to all who faced it. Quick skating and defensive maneuverability spotlighted a most productive year.

Cross Country

FRONT ROW: Robert Rochlin, Joseph Marshall, Joel Greenman, Robert Byron, Kenneth Phillips.

Soccer

This was the year when it was deemed necessary by Coach Pedersen to form a junior varsity team. The overwhelming turnout for this relatively new sport at Milton High School was a pleasant surprise to all. The varsity team, as a whole, played fast, lively and enjoyable games. The 1965 team was led by co-captains Greenman and Byron and goalie Nickerson. All in all a very successful year!

The President's Message

For twelve years the road has been straight, but now we come to a fork. As we stand before the intersection a decision must be made as to which road we alone shall take. For some the choice will come easy; for others it will not.

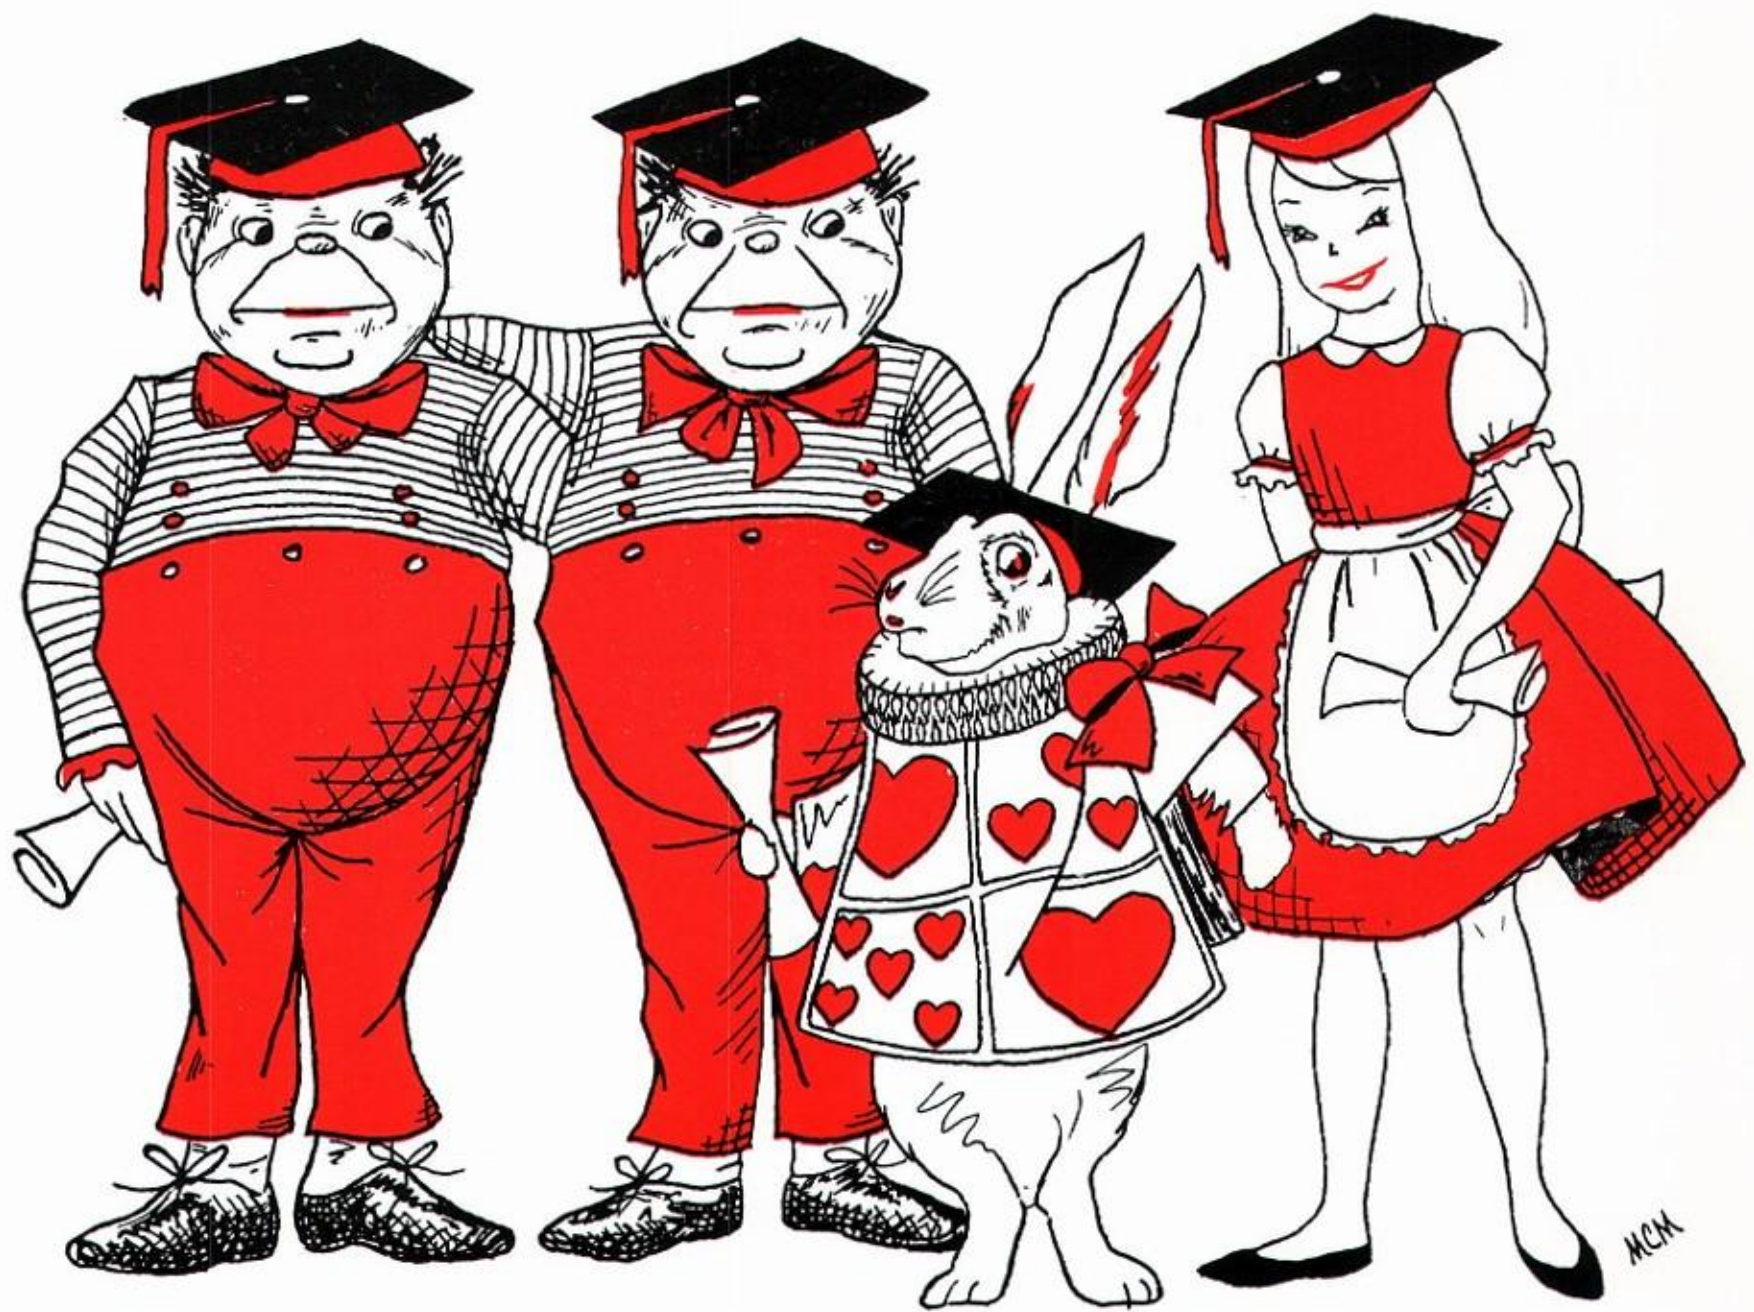

Our selection will come as a result of our own ideas, our parents' influence, and most of all the provident guidance of our high school teachers. For the past three years we have been drilled and tested; prepared for the moment of decision. We should be able to stand on our own two feet and choose one road, and travel that road to our intended goal. Very shortly the guiding hand will be removed. We will be on our own. Thanks to Milton High School each of us will have matured enough to stand alone.

We, the class of 1965, have been fortunate. We recognize all who have had any part in our success and are grateful to them. I am proud, and I know that you are, to be a member of the Class of 1965.

May God be with you.

RALPH STODDARD
President
Class of 1965

SENIORS

Senior Class Officers

CAROL CERCONE, Secretary
JOHN PERRI, Treasurer

NEAL GORDON, Vice-President
RALPH STODDARD, President

The Class of 1965 has been blessed with four enthusiastic, dedicated, and co-operative class officers. Thanks to their inspiration and perspiration, the entire school has profited. They have indeed set a high standard for future class officers to meet.

A grateful school says, "Well Done!"

INDUSTRIAL ARTS

TOO often we think of the word "Industrial" and too seldom the word "Arts" when referring to Rooms A-3, 4, 5 and 6 in the sparkling new wing of Milton High School. The things produced in these rooms are truly artistic and we are as proud of what our boys have done with their hands as we are of our academic achievements.

Industrial Arts is instructional shop work which provides an orientation in the areas of production, consumption, and recreation through actual experiences in planning, producing, servicing, and repairing various types of consumer goods in common usage. Through these experiences the student learns how to use and maintain these items intelligently. He develops general skill and resourcefulness in working safely with things mechanical and technical.

The student learns about industrial tools, materials, processes and design. They learn to do critical thinking in solving problems relating to these matters. The Industrial Arts program is organized on a basis to parallel modern industry as near as possible within practical limits. Experiences in Electronics, Graphic Arts, Woodworking, General Metals, Power Mechanics, and Drawing (mechanical and technical) are provided. The various areas are not regarded as separate subjects but as areas of experience and segments of the total Industrial Arts Program.

We have a modern plant, a superb faculty, and young men who appreciate both.

CLASS WILL

We, the class of 1965 of Milton High School, located in Milton, Norfolk County, Commonwealth of Massachusetts, in these United States, on the planet Earth, being of reasonably sound bodies, and having no minds at all, after three glorious years within these walls, do hereby bequeath the following items of no value whatsoever to our illustrious pedagogues to do with as they please:

To Mr. Kane we leave a 14-karat gold brass bracelet to wear with his sleeveless vest.

To Mr. Mullin we leave a time clock for his 8:15 Club.

To Mr. Archibald, Mr. Ramacorti, and Miss Sears we leave three letters of recommendation.

To Mrs. Arcana, Mrs. Hayer, and Mrs. McCusker we leave many faithful assistants to help them next year.

To Miss Albret we leave a gold bound copy of "Macbeth."

To Miss Depoyan we leave a full undisturbed class period of concentrated study.

To Miss Foster we leave an enthusiastic class.

To Mr. Smith we leave a normal solution for his chemistry worries.

To Mr. Alexander and Mr. Lazzaro we leave an abundant supply of red paint.

To Mr. Alger, Miss Cox, Mrs. Drucker, and Miss Rich we leave our hopes that they enjoyed their first year at M.H.S.

We leave Mr. Bailey, Mr. Banta, Mr. MacDonald, Mr. Richards, and Mr. Shute in the new wing.

To Mrs. Belkin and Miss Hanley we leave plenty — socks, sneakers, combs, gym suits . . .

We leave Mr. Brennan to many more years of Bay State champion football teams.

We leave Mrs. Buchanan with advice on how to discipline senior class studies.

We leave Mr. Campbell a few more girls for his Physics classes.

We leave Mr. Cannon and PT 107.

We leave Miss Robinson — darn it!

We leave Mr. Carnie in the Cage.

To Miss Cave we leave an Oscar.

To Mr. Colby we leave a book of tardy slips.

To Mr. Copp we leave a policeman — just in case.

To Mr. Creighton we leave a Ph.D. in Data Processing.

To Mr. Crowell we leave a securely anchored French flag.

To Miss Dawes we leave "Needles and Pins."

To Miss Desmond we leave an enthusiastic Girls League.

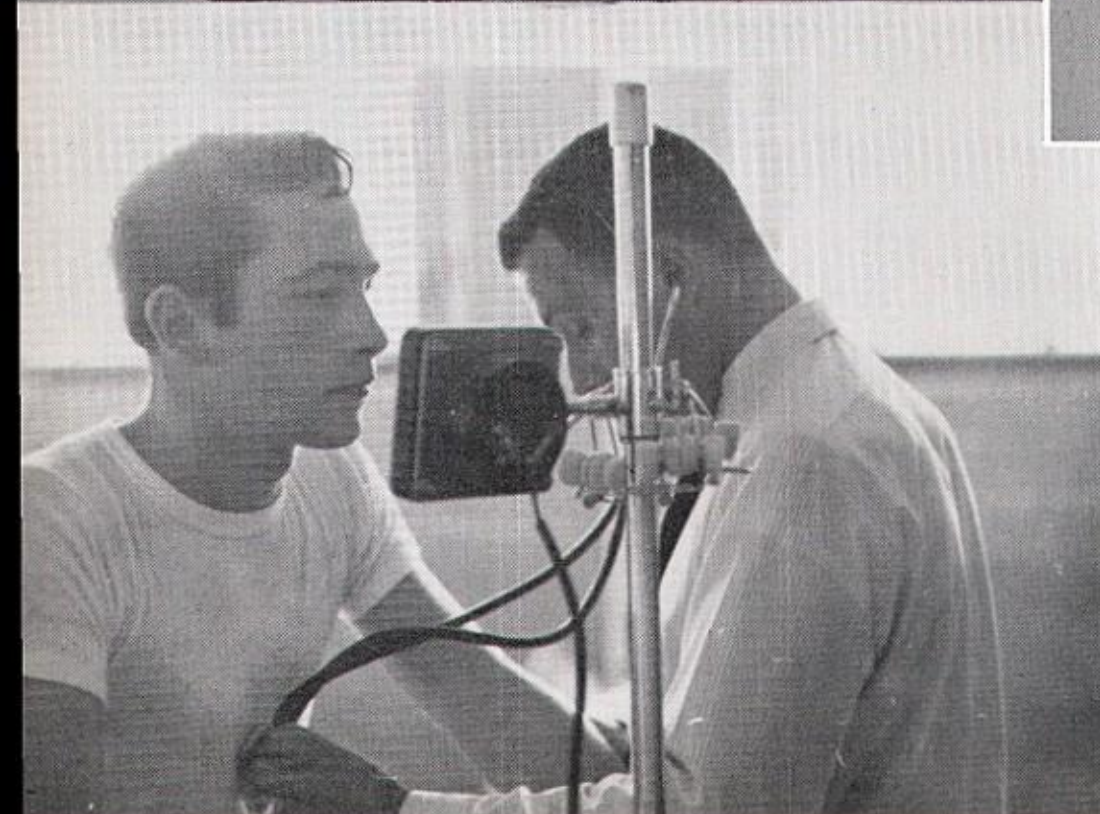

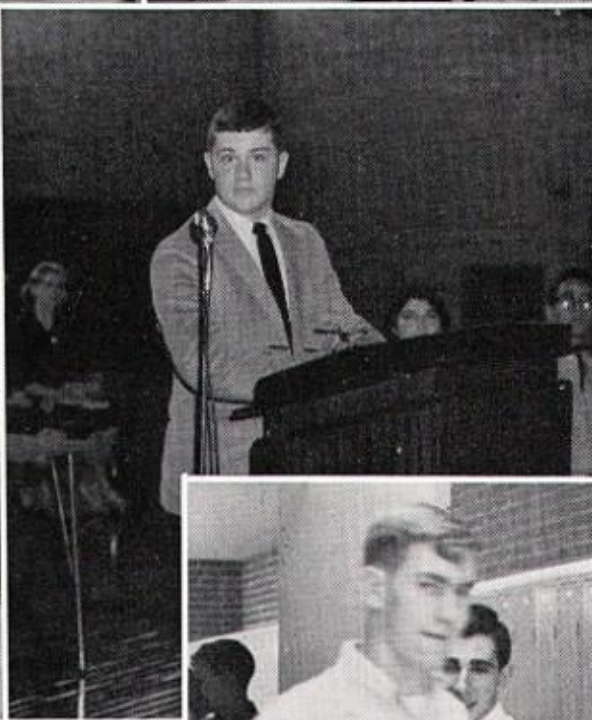

To Mrs. Davis we leave Ben Casey and Dr. Kildare.

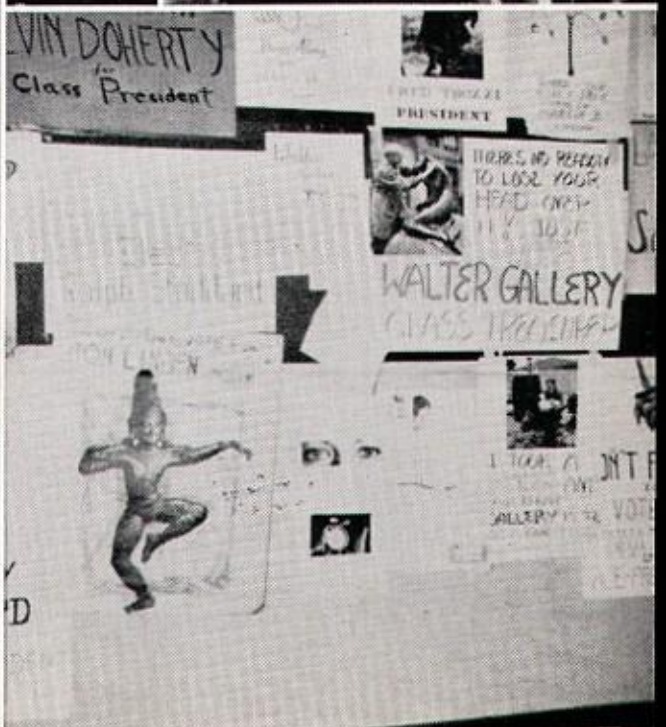

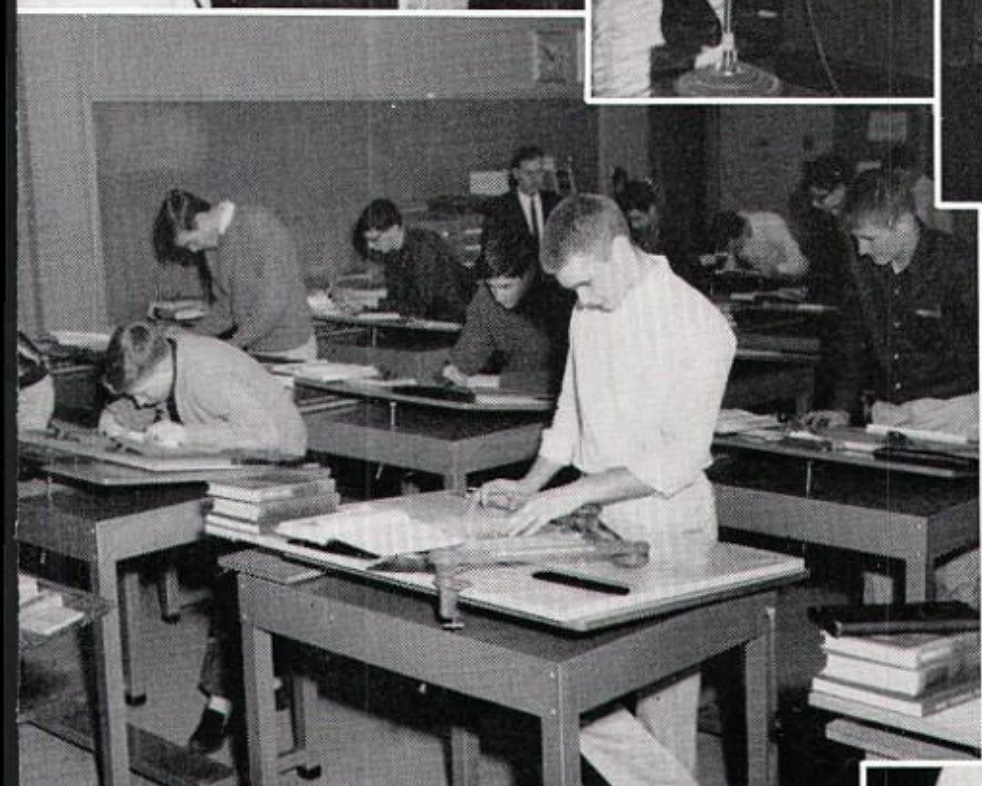

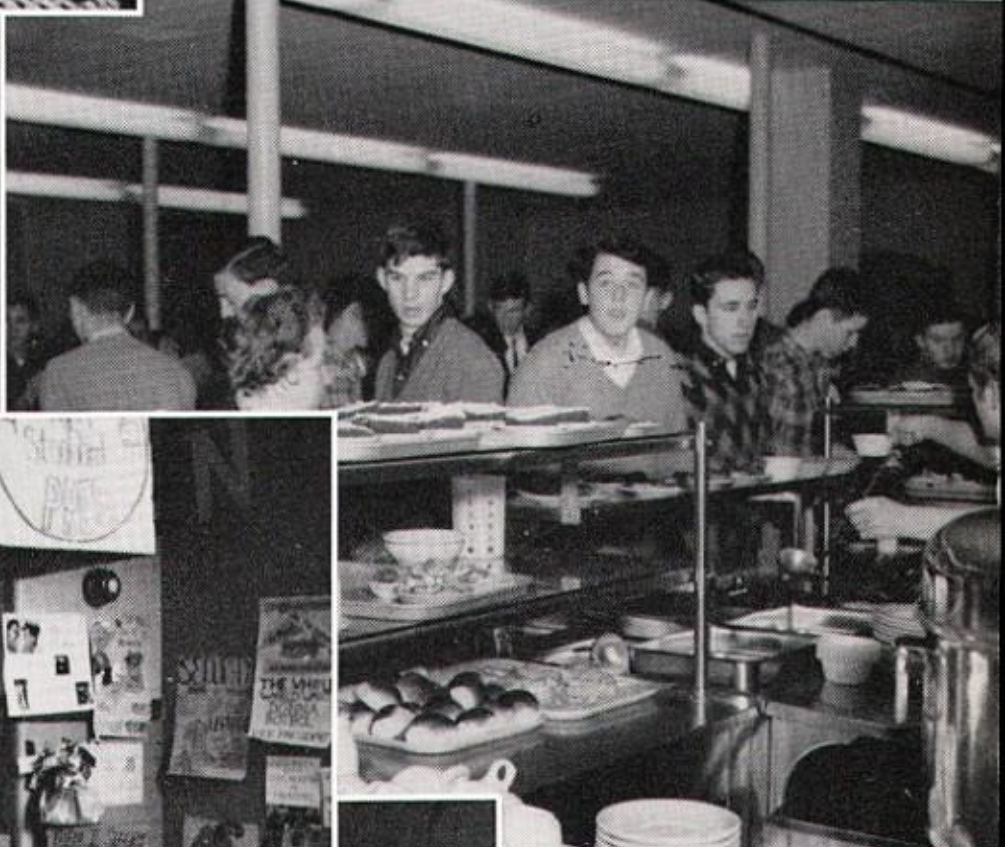

To Mrs. Donaldson we leave une petite dictee.
To Mr. Dunbar we leave a gold plated seat belt and our best wishes.
To Miss Dyas we leave a vocabulary text with so attractive a format that her seniors will reach for it gladly.
To Miss Elzbut, Miss Johnston, and Mrs. Smith we leave three sets of false fingernails.
To Mr. Engborg we leave a trainable cowlick.
To Miss Farren we leave the second half of O'Brien's LaFrance.
To Mr. Fidler we leave a shiny silver badge to wear with his whistle.
To Mr. Foss we leave a Happy Louis Quatorze Party.
To Mr. Gadaire we leave Bob Cousy and an up-to-date joke book.
To Mr. Gleason we leave a very active turkey trained to throw fish at deserving students.
To Mrs. Goldman we leave our love — per se.
To Mr. Hamilton we leave a new lab coat which red pencils cannot stain.
To Miss Heisserer we leave Cowan, Cunningham, and Meredith.
To Mr. Jennings we leave a world atlas.
To Mr. Kent we leave an Honors History class.
To Mr. Lapworth and Mr. Ryan we leave a new check book.
To Mr. McCabe we leave our problems.
To Miss Nelson we leave a more co-operative homeroom.
To Mr. Nevins we leave an Honors class that discusses Modern History.
We leave Mr. O'Donnell in the band room with a band.
To Mrs. Pile we leave a treasure map locating all lost books.
To Mr. Raymond we leave more snow for his ski trips.
To Mrs. Roland we leave a ticket to U. Mass.
To Miss Shultz we leave Donna Botbol's brother.
To Mr. Snell we leave plenty of Ben-Gay with which he may rub away senioritis.
To Mr. Tardiff we leave two tickets to see the Masked Marvel and Haystack Calhoun.
To Mr. Tatro we leave the Beatles.
To Miss Wiley we leave a million dollars — or two or three — to help put an end to her yearbook financial worries.
We leave Milton High with enlightened minds, high ideals, and sad hearts.

Signed in the greater part of room 215 on this thirteenth day of June, in the year of Our Lord one thousand nine hundred and sixty-five by those who for obvious reasons prefer to remain anonymous.

Witnessed by: David Copperfield, Brutus, Billy
Budd, Cyrano de Bergerac, Huckleberry Finn, Ringo
Starr, Banquo, Beowulf, James Bond.

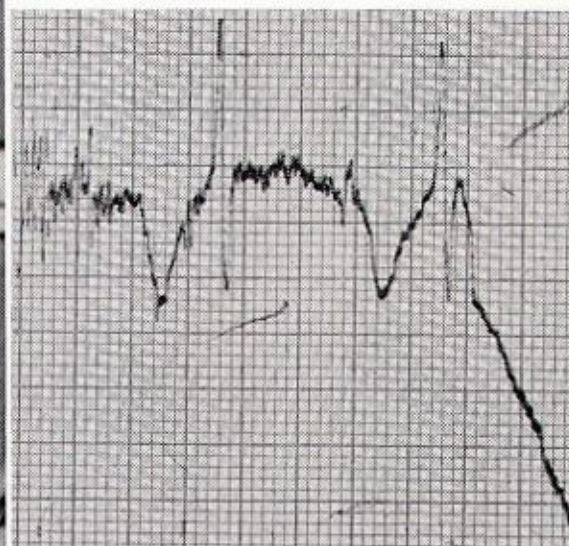

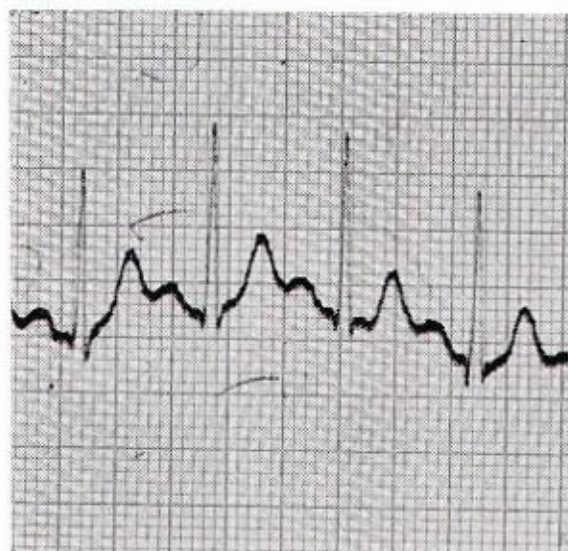

MEMORIES MEMORIES

SCHOOL began on September 10th with students and teachers madly rushing through the new wing trying to locate new classrooms. Soon Mr. Kane had to initiate one-way traffic to relieve the traffic jams that held up students between classes. A good excuse for being late to class was, "I had to come all the way from Trig down in 124." Remember Mr. Kane's directions to Juniors and Seniors for filing to the "auditorium"? . . . lucky Sophomores! We started the year off right with a collection of lost and found articles left over from June, to which we added a few gems of our own . . . Mr. Kane's 14-Karat gold brass bracelet and a sleeveless vest. One could almost feel the enthusiasm of our class . . . class election and posters literally hanging everywhere . . . Tag Day, when the boys carried girls' books for a day, then got their chance to retaliate the following week . . . the Girls League Christmas Dance that drew nearly 200 couples . . . the "surprise" that awaited us after Christmas vacation — a Suggestion Box . . . our Senior Class Play "Tom Jones" that drew a sell-out crowd and ran for two nights . . . I wonder why? . . . the bean raffle with a typewriter and a transistor radio as prizes. Significant events were . . . the Turkey Game — we won! . . . although Braintree left her "mark" on M.H.S. . . . the data processing report cards . . . the Navy Band appeared once more to fill our halls with music . . . the assembly with the Atomic Energy Commission . . . one National Merit semi-finalist and eight letters of commendation . . . the delayed dismissal bell at February vacation. Strange things also happened this year . . . Mr. Mullin mentioned Amazons smoking in the girls' rooms and there were termites at work on the ceilings of the boys' rooms. Favorite questions were, "Have you started your term paper yet?" and "Is this an eight-period day?" Familiar sights were Seniors checking college acceptance lists . . . Seniors standing around waterless water fountains . . . Mr. Fidler conducting "whistle-stop" tours along Senior corridors . . . Seniors ducking in doorways to avoid detection . . . All these things plus many others have given us a lot of fun and wonderful memories of three great years at M.H.S., and so we say, "O Milton High, to You Always."

Your Class

PHOTOGRAPHER . . .

The responsibility associated with such a title is no small task.

A School Yearbook without photographs would indeed be dull.

Therefore, we have tried to fulfill our photographic assignment with the careful attention necessary to assure you a pleasant and lasting memory of your days at Milton High School.

Especially for You . . .

- The making of School Yearbooks takes far longer than you think.
- The co-ordination of photography, art work, engraving, printing and binding was entrusted to our skilled craftsmen who have been making fine quality Yearbooks for more than a quarter of a century.
- Together with the staff who have served you so well, we, too, share in the satisfaction of completing this book . . .

Especially for YOU

Epilogue

And so we have wandered from Prologue to Epilogue - - -

We hope that it is but the first of many such trips you will take through the pages of this, the 1965 Milton High School Yearbook.
